

Questions to Ask Your Child About Their Reading

Tell me about your main character. What is he or she like?

What motivates your character? What does he or she do and why?

Name a big problem or challenge faced by the main character.

What is the life lesson, or theme from the story?

What connections can you make to other stories or books that you have read?